

The Song Company

Australia's leading vocal ensemble

Philosophy is the highest form of music. Plato 4th century BC

An eclectic selection of fascinating works inspired by history's greatest philosophers and theorists, exploring philosophical questions on wisdom, God, redemption and creation.

Features transformative music spanning hundreds of years, from 11th Century Hildegard von Bingen to modern day Terry Riley's 'In C', a classic minimalist journey into Nirvana, and more.

The Song Company is a six-voice ensemble, having developed its style by successfully integrating serious scholarship, tonal clarity, vocal daring and unbridled performance dynamics. One of the most vibrant and extraordinary in the world, it is set to performing in over 130 concerts in Australia and overseas as it celebrates its 25th anniversary this year.

Saturday, 24 October 2009

7.45 pm, Ian Roach Hall, James Forbes Academy

Tickets: $30 adult / $25 concession / $10 student

Online www.scotch.vic.edu.au/scotcharts/scotcharts/htm

By phone Astrid Whitbread 03 9810 4219

In person Scotch College Music School,
James Forbes Academy, 1 Morrison Street, Hawthorn
(School hours, during Term)

Tickets also available at the door on the concert evening

Concert Sponsors...

HANGING ROCK
Winery
MACEDON RANGES

Complimentary wines from 7:00 pm