

Behavioural Expectations – Junior School

What do Junior School boys expect of themselves?

- That I will represent the School well on all occasions by:
 - my behaviour;
 - my wearing of the School uniform;
 - my respect for others;
 - my respect for my learning; and,
 - my respect for School property.

What do Junior School boys expect of other boys?

- As a Junior School boy I can expect that other boys will:
 - do their best to represent the School well at all times;
 - look after and be supportive of me;
 - be respectful to me;
 - respect my property; and,
 - respect my right to learn.
