

BEHAVIOURAL EXPECTATIONS

Established by the boys in Junior School

What do Junior School boys expect of themselves?

1. That I will represent the School well on all occasions by:

- My behaviour;
- My wearing of the school uniform;
- My respect for others;
- My respect for my learning; and,
- My respect for School property.

2. What do Junior School boys expect of other boys?

- Do their best to represent the School well at all times;
- Look after and be supportive of me;
- Be respectful to me;
- Respect my property; and,
- Respect my right to learn.
