The Scotch College Piano Festival returns this year, July 19-27, more exciting than ever. An abundance of recitals, master classes and a piano competition will ensure a memorable week for audiences, as well as professional development opportunities for teachers and performance opportunities for students.

Programme Highlights

• CONCERTO CONCERT
  Lachlan Redd and Teresa Lavers perform the Poulenc Two Piano Concerto, and Michael Mao plays the Schumann Solo Piano Concerto with ProMusica Orchestra.
  (Saturday 19 July, 7.45pm, Ian Roach Hall)

• STAFF SPECTACULAR CONCERT
  (Sunday 20 July, 3.00pm, Ian Roach Hall)

• MASTER CLASS: MIKHAIL SOLOVIEI
  Presented by well-known pianist and teacher, Mikhail Solovei
  (Wednesday 23 July, 5:00 pm, James Campbell Room)

• SOLO RECITAL: LACHLAN REDD
  By brilliant Melbourne pianist Lachlan Redd
  (Saturday 26 July, 7.45pm, Ian Roach Hall)

• SOLO AND CHAMBER MUSIC RECITAL
  Performances by David Wang, Homer Choi, Tian Tian Lan, Austin Nguyen, Jonathon Zhang and Tristan Hocking-Brown.
  (Sunday 27 July, 1.00pm, Ian Roach Hall)

• SOLO RECITAL: SCOTT COYTE
  By rising star, young Adelaide pianist Scott Coyte
  (Sunday 27 July, 3.00pm, Ian Roach Hall)

• SCOTCH COLLEGE PIANO COMPETITION
  Will surely attract some of Melbourne’s finest young pianists with a first prize of $1,500. Sponsored by Kawai Australia.
  (Final on Sunday 27 July, 6.00pm, Ian Roach Hall)

The full festival brochure and competition entry forms are available on the Scotch College website: www.scotch.vic.edu.au

For general enquiries
Astrid Whitbread; 9810 4219
Teresa Lavers; 9810 4116